Privacy & the MLCA

Personal Information Collected by the MLCA: Name, Address (including e-mail), Telephone Numbers

The Muldrew Lakes Cottagers Association (MLCA) protects the privacy of its members by maintaining personal information in the strictest confidence. MLCA does not share members' information with any other organizations with the exception of any Governmental Organizations and Authorities (fire, police, ambulance, hospital, etc.), if required to do so, as well as MLCA advisors and representatives, when necessary. MLCA collects, uses and discloses personal information only for those purposes necessary to administer membership and for related MLCA activities and in accordance with The Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (January 1, 2004). The information includes, but is not limited to: Names, Addresses, Telephone Numbers, Email, Fees paid and Date, Property Roll numbers, Donations. Collection of this information allows MLCA to establish and maintain communications with members, identify members, and respond to their inquiries. MLCA has reviewed its procedures to ensure that access to membership information is restricted only to the executive and its Directors and that all information is returned upon their leaving the Board.

MLCA members have the right to access and amend their own personal information and to withdraw consent to the collection, use or disclosure of personal information. In accordance with the Act, the MLCA Secretary as Privacy Officer will ensure that we comply with all aspects of the legislation and continue to uphold all of the principles for protecting members' personal information.

Questions and concerns should be directed to MLCA's Secretary at the above address or by e-mail (see above).
I/we consent to having this information collected by the MLCA on my/our behalf.
